TALK IS CHEAP

The phrase “talk is cheap” is a cliché not only because it is repeated time and again, but most especially because it expresses an experimental truth. Nowhere is this more the case than in religion. People love to talk about religion from all perspectives. Religious arguments and disputes are commonplace in all areas of society, however, quite often the words end up being simply that - words. They don't lead to actions, behavior, or significant deeds. This is not something new nor was it something about which our Jewish and Christian ancestors were ignorant. This weekend our readings address the issue of words related to actions.

The book of Deuteronomy portrays Moses giving the chosen people a final review of their covenant commitments before they cross over into the promised land. There is great emphasis here on hearing the statutes and decrees of the Lord. These sacred words are important. They are the seeds of salvation, however, it is not enough just to hear them or talk about them. These statutes and decrees must be observed. They must be put into practice. The future nation of Israel will not be judged by its wonderful words. It will be judged by its actions and it will be considered a wise nation if it hears the words of the Lord and puts them into practice.

This weekend's gospel from Mark approaches this issue of words and actions from a slightly different point of view. Jesus and his disciples are criticized by the Pharisees for the lax way they deal with the purity laws regarding washing hands before a meal. In response to this confrontation, Jesus challenges the Pharisees with a quote from Isaiah: “These people honor me with their lips but their hearts are far from me.” In other words, Jesus is declaring that the Pharisees have all the right words and ritual practices, but it never gets below the surface of things.

Examples of people who call themselves Christians - saying one thing and doing another abound. Hypocrisy is almost like a virus that infects even those we thought to be immune from such things. This is not a time for name calling or passing judgment on others. It is a time to reaffirm our Judeo-Christian tradition. Words matter, but putting those words into action fulfills their intent. Christianity is about “praying” or putting our facts into practice. So what can we do? We can consciously commit ourselves to being doers of the word and putting our faith into practice.

Christian Giving

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

As Pope Francis' visit draws nearer, the anticipation and excitement surrounding this monumental event increases. As a faith community, we are so proud to be hosing his visit and especially, so proud of all that he represents. His focus on reaching out to the poor, vulnerable, lonely, and needy in our society is truly admirable. The Social Action Committee at St. Ignatius has a similar mission. With your financial support, we are able to reach out to those in our community who are in need, whether it be purchasing essentials such as shoes, diapers, underwear and socks, or paying a rent for someone who is experiencing a financial crisis. Because of you, we have provided gas cards and grocery cards, using script whenever possible. Our furniture and clothing drives are always successful, recycling necessities to those in need. And we look forward to receiving your food donations at our Thanksgiving Turkey Drive.

Our Fall collection will be held the weekend of September 5th and 6th. Envelopes have been provided in our collection packets and checks should be written to St. Ignatius with a notation for the Social Action Committee.

We thank you for your continued support. Your donation will make a difference in someone's life. If you are aware of a family in need, please contact the rectory at 215-493-3377, and a referral will be made.

SUMMER MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister
 Email: fklose@siparish.org

Saint Augustine once said, "He who sings, prays twice". Congregational singing makes such a difference in our greatest prayer, the liturgy, and we cannot do it without those who minister to the congregational singing. Our music ministry groups are on hiatus for the Summer, but please consider joining one of them upon our return in the Fall.

Adult Choir - sings two times a month at various Masses and at special occasions.

Youth Band - Music ministry group sings at three 6:00 p.m. Masses each month. While the music is popular among young parishioners, the group is not limited to any age range. We encourage instrumentalists and voices that can lend their talents to a contemporary style.

First Light - Nicknamed "the Folk Group" by some, the group First Light sings at the 9:30 Mass three times a month.

If you are interested, please ask any music minister after Mass, or contact Frank at fklose@siparish.org.

CHARISMATIC PRAYER GROUP...All are invited - as we sing God's praises and share in His Word and His Love in an intimate community of faith. We meet every Tuesday from 7:00-8:30PM in Room 2F in the Meeting Center. Deacon Bob Skawinski is our spiritual Prayer Group Director.

Maria Gdovin - Youth Minister
 Email: ym@siparish.org
 Phone: 267-391-7693

Are you an adult over the age of 21 who is alive in your faith? Are you looking for some way to help the future of our church grow in their faith? Then the Youth Ministry is in need of your help! We are looking for a few good leaders of our church to help with our youth ministry programs. Time commitment and responsibilities vary from being a chaperone to picking up supplies needed for an event. Please consider helping our youth, we cannot have events without the prayerful help of our parish community. If you feel as if you are able to help, please contact Maria either via email or call.

Youth in 6-12th grade be on the lookout for new and exciting events to be taking place! Save the date...our kick off is September 13th! Mark your calendars and I look forward to seeing you there!

*A Red Rose Can Be Placed
 By The Respect Life Altar*

The Respect Life Committee invites all parishioners to pray for life, to pray for the gift of life, and to pray for all those who struggle with beginning of life and end of life issues, especially since they are at the forefront of our spiritual warfare. If you have a special intention for life, notify us at lrupperberger@gmail.com or through one of the sacrificial envelopes at the entrance of the Church and your petition will be placed weekly at the pro-life Rose of Life pedestal.

"Keeping the spirit of the Gospel means that Catholic Institutions are to bear witness in love to the full truth about the human person by providing social, charitable, and educational services in a manner that fully reflects the God-given dignity of the human person." (Archbishop Wm. Lori - "Freedom to Bear Witness").

Essentially, it is the responsibility of Catholic institutions to emulate the word and meaning of the Gospel in their ministry. It is a shame of our popular secular, relativistic society that terms such as 'cafeteria Catholic' and 'authentic Catholic' have to be coined. The Magisterium of the Catholic Church was given to the Church by Jesus to help explain and interpret the meaning of the Gospel as applied to current cultural trends while remaining faithful to the one Truth given to us by God, whose name is Jesus. The catechism of the Catholic Church is an infallible presentation of these teachings - always respecting the dignity of the person, i.e. being 'tolerant' of persons, not some relativistic principles which are not the Truth.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

ADORATION CHAPEL

We are truly blessed at St. Ignatius to have an Adoration Chapel. 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, someone is spending quiet time with our Eucharistic Lord, Jesus! You can too, anytime day or night - just come in and visit. Also if you would like to come at a set time each week, please consider taking one of the following hours:

Kindly call Marianne Kloc for more information at 267-346-0152, if you would like more information or if you would like to substitute at your convenience.

Our Chapel is open except when the weather is inclement or we are celebrating the Easter Triduum. To find out if our Chapel is open or closed, please call 215-493-3377, ext. 221.
