OTHER CHRISTS

This weekend's Gospel passage brings up several points that were important for the early Christian community - points we later Christians often overlook.

First, it was significant for Jesus' first disciples to realize He wasn't a one-man show. He didn't expect His followers just to stand around applauding as He engaged in His ministry. One of the deepest insights the Holy Spirit helped Jesus' disciples achieve after His death and resurrection was that they were expected to carry on His ministry. They were to become "Other Christs".

But having "authority over unclean spirits" is even more important when we remember that the first miracle Jesus performs in Mark's gospel is exorcising a demoniac in the Cafarnaum Synagogue.

Each Gospel's first miracle is significant. Evangelists employ them as a way to set the theme for their Gospels. Unless we understand this, we're liable to think that, historically, there's only one first miracle: Jesus changing water into wine at Cana in Galilee in John's Gospel. It previews the thesis he defends throughout his Gospel, namely, Jesus changes the water of Judaism into the wine of Christianity.

Mark has a different theme. He's much more concerned with replacing evil with good, not Judaism with Christianity. Like every one in his culture, Mark presumed demons cause more than just moral evil.

So if Mark tells his readers that Jesus' first miracle was ridding someone of a demon, he's also telling them that the task, as imitators of Jesus, is to rid this world of as much evil as they possibly can. If Jesus' ministry revolves around the elimination of evil, so should ours.

Another Gospel to explore is Jesus' use of "The Twelve". Why didn't he choose the eleven, or the thirteen? To appreciate why he zeroed in on twelve, we first must understand the names our evangelists employ when they are speaking about Jesus' followers.

The most frequently used title is "disciple". Every follower of Jesus is given this name. It basically describes what he or she does: They follow behind someone - in this case, Jesus. But among the disciples are some who are "sent out" on special missions. The Gospel writers refer to them as "Apostles". It's in that sense that Paul frequently calls himself an apostle. Finally, among those sent out is a unique group known simply as "The Twelve".

Jesus traveled with twelve men, a group that in Jewish minds represented all Israel, not just a chosen few. In the sacred Author's mind, the twelve weren't the church's first bishops or priests; they simply were symbols of Jacob's twelve sons.

The last important point in our Gospel periscope is the instruction Jesus gives the twelve. They were "to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick - no food, no sack, no money in their belts, they were however, to wear sandals, but not a second tunic."

Because of your baptism and mine, we are also called to be "Other Christs" to the world.

Written by: Caroline Sullivan (8th grade graduate)

Did you know that St. Ignatius School is comprised of fully committed teachers that are dedicated to learning? Since we are not a very big school, teachers find a way to make learning fun and easy, as well as find unique ways of educating their students to prepare them for high school. Religion class is one of the strengths of St. Ignatius School. We are fully committed to our Catholic faith. We begin and end each day with prayer, attend Mass each month, take part in numerous service projects, say the rosary as a school in October and May, attend daily Mass during Advent and Lent, participate in Stations and Benediction during Lent, perform the Passion Play, and honor Mary in the May Procession. These are only some of the reasons that I am lucky to have been a student in St. Ignatius of Antioch School.

FATHER McCAFFERTY SCHOLARSHIP FUND

SUMMER MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister
Email: fklose@siparish.org

Saint Augustine once said, "He who sings, prays twice". Congregational singing makes such a difference in our greatest prayer, the liturgy, and we cannot do it without those who minister to the congregational singing. Our music ministry groups are on hiatus for the Summer, but please consider joining one of them upon our return in the Fall.

Adult Choir - sings two times a month at various Masses and at special occasions.

Youth Band - Music ministry group sings at three 6:00 p.m. Masses each month. While the music is popular among young parishioners, the group is not limited to any age range. We encourage instrumentalists and voices that can lend their talents to a contemporary style.

First Light - Nicknamed "the Folk Group" by some, the group First Light sings at the 9:30 Mass three times a month.

If you are interested, please ask any music minister after Mass, or contact Frank at fklose@siparish.org.

CHARISMATIC PRAYER GROUP

All are invited - as we sing God's praises and share in His Word and His Love in an intimate community of faith.

We meet every Tuesday from 7:00-8:30PM in Room 2F in the Meeting Center. Deacon Bob Skawinski is our spiritual Prayer Group Director.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites you to pray for life. We also invite those interested in having a special 'life' intention to dedicate a plaque for one week at the 'life rose' on the altar or by filling out a dedication envelope and placing it in the collection basket or dropping it off at the rectory. The requested donation is $10 and envelopes are at the entrances to the church and in the Adoration Chapel. Let's not have a week go by without a dedication. Please stop by to pray for life at our Lady of Guadalupe grotto at the entrance of the Church.

"Then Esau looked up and saw the women and children and asked, 'who are these with you?'" and Jacob answered, "they are the children with whom God has graciously favored your servant."

Children are the supreme gift of a marriage between a man and a woman. There is no 'right to have a child'; the only one who has rights is the child and that is to be born of an intimate relationship between a mother and father who are married to one another. The Holy Spirit is the Lord and Giver of life and comes into the marital union; children are the gift that physically represent the love of the husband and the wife for all eternity. Once we realize that 'God has a plan' for eternal salvation and destiny and respect it, we will stop killing and start loving.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE EUCHARIST

1. In what ways is the Catholic tradition different to Protestantism in regard to the teaching of the Eucharist?
2. How does your faith in the real presence comfort you?
3. Do you allow Jesus to feed your soul or do you allow other things to satisfy you?
4. In return for Jesus offering Himself to you, how do you offer yourself to God?
5. Name the practical ways in which you can enter into communion with God.
6. In regard to consuming the Body of Christ, how in turn will you become Christ to others?
