ALL WILL END WELL

The problem with stories about the end of the world is that images get in the way of the message. We get so wrapped up in earthquakes and plagues and celestial things that we miss the point of the story, namely, that the world will come to an end.

We modern people think, "No great revelation there. We didn't need scripture to know that all things come to an end." However, that simple fact was indeed a revelation to ancient peoples. They got their sense of time from nature, and so thought in cyclical terms. Spring followed winter, sun followed rain, trees grew new leaves. They thought that everything continued in a set cycle of repetition. There was no progress, no goal in creation, no purpose in life, just monotonous, meaningless motion.

We owe the idea of history to the Jews. God said, "Go there, do that. If you don't do this, I will do that." The word does not follow the script of fate; actions have consequences. Earth is not chasing its tail; it is going somewhere, and it will finally get there. It will end.

We are so accustomed to things going somewhere and ending that we take it for granted. It is simply assumed that things change. They are amenable to our influence, and they will finally end for good or ill.

This need for endings is deeply imbedded. Some people read the last page first to see how a novel ends. Some people can't wait to open their presents. Children keep asking, "Are we there yet?" And no matter how complicated a TV show is, we know it will all come together in the last minute. We are disappointed when it says, "To be continued."

It is something like that with God. God is also awaiting to see how His drama of creation ends. The outcome is not entirely up in the air. As soon as His Son became human and entered the interplay of history, it was determined that it would all end well. But what is not known is how individual things will fare and how God will work all the consequences of human freedom into a good conclusion.

What makes this possible at all is the fact that it has a deadline. Knowing that we will die, that our life will come to an end, is the chief reason for living well. Knowing that the world will end gives purpose to history and humanity.

God's universe will end just as God wishes; all things will be gathered together by His Son and handed over to the Father. All creatures and every person will unite their voices in a simple hymn to God. All will be well.

ST. IGNATIUS PARISH APPEAL ~ 2015-2016 UPDATE

As you know, our annual parish appeal is underway and will run through January 31, 2016. Thank you to all who have responded to this year's appeal. For those who have not yet made their gift, there is still plenty of time. You should have received a letter from Monsignor Shoemaker about this effort. If you have not received the appeal materials, please contact the rectory office at 215-493-3377, ext. 211. Appeal envelopes are also available at each of the exit areas of the church.

You may place your completed appeal envelope containing your gift in the regular Sunday collection basket. You may also mail your gift to the Parish office or drop it off there anytime during our appeal, or as soon as your means allow.

As of our fifth week of the Parish appeal, 202 families have contributed $54,555.00 toward our goal of $175,000.00.

God bless you and your families for contributing to this very important source of income for our parish.

PREP SERVICE PROJECT: We are collecting baby items (diapers, clothing, baby wash, baby wipes) for Catholic Social Services. The collections runs from Nov. 1 -18. If you wish to donate, please bring the items to the PREP Office.

To Parents of Students in grades 7 - 12: In grades K - 6, students learn about God and the doctrines of our Faith in an age appropriate manner. If this is the only Religious Education that a child receives, how can he/she ever learn to develop a teenage or adult relationship with God? Parents, is the God you believe in still the God of your youth? Please give your older children the chance to know a "big" God. Send them to PREP through grade 12.

Parents, are you aware that we have a "Special Needs" PREP class that meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please give Annmarie a call.

ST. IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH SCHOOL

"High Achievement ~ Higher Purpose"

Looking Ahead:

Pope Francis has announced that beginning on December 8th, the Catholic Church will begin celebrating a "Holy Year of Mercy" to highlight the Catholic Church's mission to be a witness of mercy. The pope reminds us that no one can be excluded from God's mercy. This year will provide an opportunity for all Catholics to remember and to practice the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy. It will be a time for us to reach out to those around us in physical or spiritual need.

Coming Events:

Sunday, Nov. 15 - Turkey Bingo - doors open at 12:30pm.
Thursday, Nov. 19 - 7:00pm - General Home and School meeting in the cafeteria. All parents are invited to join our families to hear Brandon Lutz from the Intermediate Unit speak about the use of social media by our children. Please bring an electronic device with you in order to be an active part of the meeting.

St. Ignatius School provides a "Foundation for Success" for our 21st century learners in Faith, Academics, and Service. Come check us out. We are always excited to show off our school and students.

Enjoy your week. The hustle and bustle will be starting as we prepare for "Turkey Day".

FATHER McCAFFERTY SCHOLARSHIP FUND

A suggestion to our parishioners - see if the company you work for might consider a matching gift to your donation to our Scholarship Fund.

Monsignor Shoemaker is in need of several donations to the fund in order to assist needy families with school tuition.

PLEASE REMEMBER

The first day each week for Catholic Education in School and PREP begins on Saturday/Sunday with attendance at Mass.

MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES
Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister
Email: fklose@siparish.org

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus gives us insight into what we should do when things appear to be the darkest. "Shelter Me, O God" (#717) is a good companion to this week's Responsorial Psalm, "You are my inheritance, O Lord" (#30). In times of trouble we must remember: the Lord is where our true inheritance is. "I Am the Bread of Life" (#945) is a reminder of the Eucharist's role in our future. "Soon and Very Soon" (#865), which is often sung at Advent, is an African American Spiritual that plays off of today's theme. For those entrenched in slavery, whose earth has seemed to pass away and their days are darkened as the Gospel says. The hymn was a great source of hope; they'll one day see the Son of Man coming in the clouds and their tribulation will be no more.

"Sing a New Song" (#607) is a reminder that there is always a new song to be sung, for there is great joy in the Lord.

Both the children's and adult choirs are forming for Christmas. If you are interested in joining for the holidays, please speak to a music minister at Mass or email Frank at the address listed above. Practices will be held Thursdays in December - grade 3 through 8 for children's choir at 5:30pm and adults at 7:00pm.

As you may have already noticed, we have placed a recycling bin next to the Thrifty Irishman clothing bin in the parking lot. This recycling program is a community-based initiative to help raise money for our Parish.

Please do not place cereal/soda cartons, food wrap/containers, tissue products, plastic or glass into the bin.

BOOK 'N BEAN

Wish you had more time to read great books? How about one per month? Join us on the last Tuesday of each month (note exception in December) to discuss the club's book of the month!

Our group meets in the Religious Education Office (across from the school cafeteria) from 7:30 - 8:45pm for a relaxed discussion. Bring your own refreshments. Contact Linda Stewart at dremom@verizon.net or call her at (215) 968-3577 with any questions. Our schedule for the 2015-2016 academic year is:

A Red Rose Can Be Placed
 By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites all parishioners to pray for life, to pray for the gift of life, and to pray for all those who struggle with beginning of life and end of life issues, especially since they are at the forefront of our spiritual warfare. If you have a special intention for life, notify us at lruppersberger@gmail.com or through one of the sacrificial envelopes at the entrances of the church and your petition will be placed weekly at the prolife Rose of Life pedestal.

To defend and promote life, to show reverence and love for it, is a task which God entrusts to every man. (Pope Saint John Paul II). IF the Holy Spirit represents the person who is love, the love between the Father and the Son; IF the Holy Spirit is the Lord, the Giver of Life as we profess in our Creed...then respecting life is respecting the Holy Spirit and showing reverence and love for He who IS love. It seems quite simple, and yet, the father of lies, Satan, makes it more complicated by taking 'reverence and love' and converting it into 'choice'...which it has ALWAYS been since the first sin...free will and 'choice'.

Let us try to empty ourselves to make room for the Holy Spirit. In this month honoring saints, let us honor them and mimic them and aspire to sainthood.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
