A GOD FOR ALL PEOPLE

Through the centuries, a variety of interesting legends have grown up around this feast of the Epiphany. Although the magi from the east are not named, described or numbered in the scriptures, most legends agree that there were three of them. One particular legend, told to world explorer Marco Polo on a trip to Persia, seems to describe Balthazar as the youngest of the magi, Caspar in the middle, and Malchior as the oldest. In the legend, when the three travelers arrive in Bethlehem, each goes separately to enter a cave to visit the One they seek and encounter no one there but a man his own age. Later the magi take their gifts and went back to the cave together. When they enter, they find inside only a 13 day old infant.

The Persian legend does not go into detail about their conversations but we can imagine what the three travelers might have talked about with the man in the cave. Perhaps when young Balthazar entered, he met a young prophet with whom he was quite at ease, and they shared memories of days gone by.

Jesus understands and speaks to every human being at every step of life. Those with the maturity of old age hear the call to integrity and wisdom. The middle aged hear the call to responsibility and service. The young hear the call to find their way toward intimacy with God and to find the unique identity that will shape and direct their lives.

And you? Who do you meet as you come bearing the gift of yourself to God this day? To what is God calling you? How will you use the gift of the New Year that lies ahead? Like the magi of old, we too are on a journey, searching at every junction along the way for some manifestation of God and of grace.

In their individual and collective travels to the ancient Israelites, gradually they learned that God has chosen them to reflect light and truth in the word. They also came to understand that they were privileged to be part of God's universal plan of salvation. This required them to include, rather than discount the value of others.

St. Paul, in his letter to Ephesians, answers them that it has been God's plan all along to embrace all human kind with the gift of salvation. Despite our provincial attitude and ever narrowing ideas of who belong to the people of God, emphasizing with equivocation that God wants ALL to be included in the loving and gracious embrace of salvation.

What will we talk about when we enter the "cave" of hearts to encounter there the God of Epiphany? Will our conversation actually be a monologue? Or might God be able to get in a few words edgewise.

Our next meeting to assemble meals will be held on Thursday, January 7th from 9am - noon in the church auditorium kitchen. We are truly blessed, but more helping hands are always needed and welcome. SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE COLLECTION
~ JANUARY 9TH AND JANUARY 10TH~

The first collection in the New Year for the Social Action Committee will be held the weekend of January 9th and January 10th. Winter always presents special challenges to those in need and providing warm clothing, blankets, heating and electricity is essential, as well as providing good nutrition, in spite of rising food prices. Catholic Social Services continues to call on the Social Action Committee at St. Ignatius in emergencies and, because of your generosity, we always respond positively. Our Thanksgiving food drive reached food programs in Bucks County, Mercer County, and Philadelphia. Our fall furniture drive provided many recycled items in great condition to clients in need. And the items donated for our baby and clothing drives were so appreciated by many.

Please help us continue our efforts by contributing to the second collection next week. Envelopes have been provided in our collection packets and checks should be written to St. Ignatius with a notation for the Social Action Committee. Every penny contributed will go to the less fortunate. Script is used whenever possible and local businesses are always generous with discounts when a need is identified.

If you are interested in joining the Social Action Committee or if you know of a family in need, please call the rectory at 215-493-3377 and a referral will be made. Thank you for your continued support. Please know that your donation does make a difference in someone's life.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), no 373, designates January 22, as a particular day of prayer and penance, called the “Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. “In all Diocese of the United States of America, January 22 shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person through acts of abortion.”

9 Days for Life: Prayer, Penance, and Pilgrimage:

9 DAYS FOR LIFE is a focused period of prayer, penance, and pilgrimage marking the anniversary of Roe v. Wade (the Supreme Court case which legalized abortion during all 9 months of pregnancy). All are invited to participate by planning and/or taking part in local events and by praying with thousands across the country for a new intention each day. Download a free app or sign up for daily emails or text messages during the novena. Go to ‘9 Days for Life: Prayer, Penance, and Pilgrimage’.
