THE GIFT OF PEACE

We are offered another vision in today's second reading, a vision of the New Jerusalem, "coming down out of heaven from God" (Revelation 21:10). Read between the lines describing the radiant city, and we find that the greatest beauty revealed is the beauty of perfect symmetry and order, a city founded on the faith of the twelve tribes of Israel and the Twelve Apostles, lit only by the glory of God. The first reading and the Gospel are linked to this idealized description of the New Jerusalem. In both we read of distress and disturbance countered by the gift of peace. "My peace I give to you," Jesus assures his disciples at the Last Supper (John 14:27). In keeping with that gift, the apostles and elders, in the reading from Acts, decide not to disturb the peace of new Gentile believers. The undue burden of circumcision will not be imposed on them.

ROSARY

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

All are invited to recite the rosary after the 9:00am Mass. For those who can stay longer, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy is also recited.

From the Administrator's Desk...

There are many kinds of prayer. You may have learned the same acronym as I early in our parish school days: A C T S:

- A = Prayer of ADORATION
- C = Prayer of CONTRITION
- T = Prayer of THANKSGIVING
- S = Prayer of SUPPLICATION

We needn't bother with the seminary one: LEIS, which has nothing to do with what Hawaiians place on visitors shoulders. No, it stands for: Latreutical, Eucharistic, Impetratory, Supplicator.

Children start with the S word: supplication—self-centered critters as they can be. At nine years old, I heard that God would give us whatever we want, if we “made” the nine First Fridays. I made them, but didn't get the bike I was praying for. So, I did them a second time, but the First Friday of April, in around 1947, was Good Friday; and in those days there was no distribution of Holy Communion on Good Friday. So, the sequence was broken! How unfair can you get? I gave up. It was healing to learn later that praying for “fun” things was not the purpose of observing practices such as Nine First Fridays, but spiritual goals such as healings, conversions, forgiveness, getting a job etc...

More about the A, C, and T words next time.

SAVE THE DATE

On Saturday, May 21, 2016 at 10AM, St. Ignatius Parish will celebrate Mass in remembrance of Msgr. Samuel E. Shoemaker, to commemorate what would have been the 50th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. We would like to invite all parishioners and friends to attend this memorial. A reception will follow in the Parish Life Center.

ST. IGNATIUS FISCAL CORNER

As many of you had heard, St. Ignatius has conducted a feasibility study to measure the ability of our parish to conduct a capital campaign. It is in the very early planning stages and we are still in the process of gathering information. We are currently reviewing the results from the initial study and will be meeting with the new pastor once he is appointed. We would like to thank everyone who had participated, either in person or by way of our online survey. Some of our goals include major parish improvements such as a new church roof, making our restroom facilities handicap accessible and installing an elevator in the church. We are also hoping to retire the remaining parish debt as well as to provide assistance to our parish school. More information will be coming soon! In future editions of our bulletin, we will be using this space to provide information about our parish finances. Next week we will take a look at our current parish debt, how much we owe and to whom. If you have a topic you would like reported on, please send your requests to our parish business manager, Gregory Lucidi, via email to pbm@siparish.org and we will try to address your questions. Exciting times are upon us as we look to our "New Beginning".

RESPECT ROSE OF LIFE INTENTION

For the healing of all women who have had an abortion.

The Rose of Life dedication is open to any who wishes a special intention. Please contact lruppersberger@gmail.com. In the meantime, anyone interested in joining us, we meet the first Monday of every month at 8 PM on the second floor of the Old Rectory. Join us for life.

"Little did I know that God was there, all along, offering me His love... The power of forgiveness is life altering. I am happy again and the people whom I love sense that" (Life Matters: Healing After Abortion)

In this Year of Mercy as Mother's Day approaches, all mothers who have aborted their children, regardless of circumstance, have God's full Mercy available to them. Confession and absolution and penance wipe away the sin. Healing must then take place. There is no healing without forgiveness, and the first they women need to forgive is themselves, as God will forgive them, if they ask.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer:

For post abortion healing ministries: May their invitation to discover God's healing mercy reach those who are suffering, we pray to the Lord.

Remember it is impossible to get close to Jesus and stay close to him without developing an intimate daily conversation with him. ADULT FAITH FORMATION

The Adult Faith Formation and Education committee of St Ignatius exists to provide programs of current interest that lead to reflection, inquisition, faith sharing, growth and a deeper relationship with Christ. Many may say- “why do it?”, only a handful of the same people show up; it is so much effort picking a program, advertising it, setting up, cleaning up - and the same 20-25 people show up, out of over 2500 families. We have tried different nights of the week, different times, different locations, different snacks, and over the past 15 years have probably put on 200 or more DIFFERENT programs, all for FREE for the members of our parish. Why? Because we love God, and want to serve Him. Do you love God and wish to serve Him and become part of a dynamic team who selects programs of interest, education, and faith for others? Then join us the first Wednesday of every month at 7:30 PM on the second floor of the Old Rectory. One of our new programs available to the entire parish is FORMED, an online site of many programs, DVD’s, movies and books. Just go to our parish website and click on the link for FORMED, and get trans-FORMED in your faith right from your own home or work.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.
Intercessory Prayer:

For all those who are seeking: may they find what they are looking for in Christ, their Lord and Redeemer, we pray to the Lord.
