Seventh Sunday of Easter

Reading I: Acts 1: 12-14

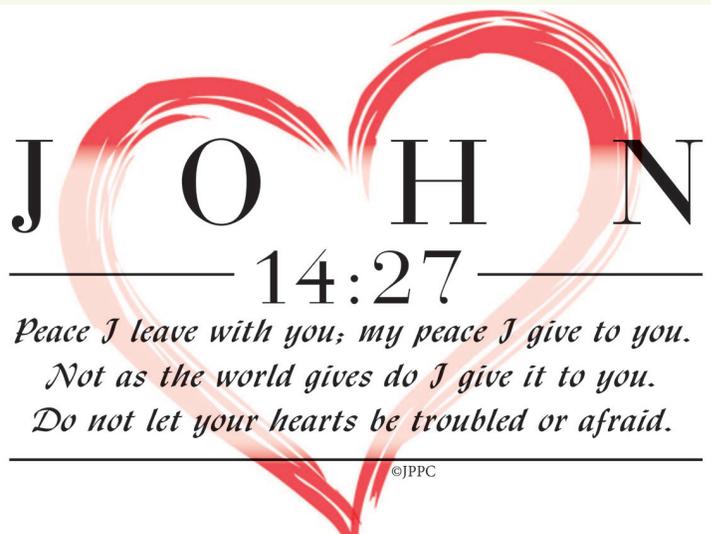

The Blessed Mother joins the eleven Apostles and Jesus' "brothers" as they return to Jerusalem to live a time of prayerful anticipation of the Holy Spirit's arrival. We can presume they lived a harmonious community life.

Reading II: I Peter 4: 13-16

The author of the letter states that insults and worse forms of persecution for the sake of one's belief in Jesus is part and parcel of the faith. Such endurance guarantees a share in Christ's glory after this life.

The Gospel: John 17: 1-11a

Jesus lovingly prays for His disciples in the setting of the Last Supper. He tells of a genuine unity with His Father that is shared with them. Soon He will be coming back to His Father but not before sending the disciples into what He calls "the world." This means into a world of hatred and unbelief if not total disregard for His teachings.

Pérez has suspended all public Masses in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia effective at 12:00 p.m. on Wednesday, March 18th and until further notice. The Archbishop dispensed the faithful from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass. Both decisions were made in response to the growing concern over the spread of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) and the directives provided by government and health department officials at the local, state, and national levels. These measures will be re-evaluated pending future developments. Visit our website to find a news release that has been distributed to the media as well as liturgical directives that have been shared with all clergy in the Archdiocese.

Covid-19:
A Prayer of Solidarity

- For all who have contracted coronavirus,
We pray for care and healing.
- For those who are particularly vulnerable,
We pray for safety and protection.
- For all who experience fear or anxiety,
We pray for peace of mind and spirit.
- For affected families who are facing difficult decisions between food on the table or public safety,
We pray for policies that recognize their plight.
- For those who do not have adequate health insurance,
We pray that no family will face financial burdens alone.
- For those who are afraid to access care due to immigration status,
We pray for recognition of the God-given dignity of all.
- For our brothers and sisters around the world,
We pray for shared solidarity.
- For public officials and decision makers,
We pray for wisdom and guidance.
- Father, during this time may your Church be a sign of hope,
comfort and love to all.
Grant peace.
Grant comfort.
Grant healing.
Be with us, Lord.

Amen.

ADULT Faith FORMATION

Today marks the celebration of the Ascension of our Lord. We may be celebrating together, or not. But if we are not, let us celebrate regardless. Jesus, in His resurrected body, ascended into Heaven to 'sit at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, and from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead' as we profess in our Creed. This day celebrates Christ's final apparition of the entry of his resurrected human body into divine glory. Only One who came from the Father can return to the Father. Only through Christ may we attain 'returning to the Father'. His resurrected human body is in Heaven interceding for us to the Father and it is through Him that we can know the Father as He and the Father are one! So, the forty days preceding Easter, Lent, is followed by the forty days preceding the feast of the Ascension of our Lord. By these teachings of sacrifice of life on earth (Lent), dying (as we all will), and rising from the dead (as the Second Coming) and being 're-united' with our 'resurrected bodies' we will either physically live for all eternity in the presence of God (heaven) or in His absence (Hell) by our choice (free will). We also get a glimpse of what that resurrected body can do when Jesus appeared to thousands after He rose from the dead. A lot to look forward to!
St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

Respect

"Everyone is in need of reassurance, and if we, who have touched 'the Word of life' (1 Jn 1:1) do not give it, who will? How beautiful it is to be Christians who offer consolation, who bear the burdens of others and who offer encouragement: messengers of life in a time of death!"

We need everyone who knows God, who loves God, who has a relationship with God to be an 'evangelist', to tell His story, to offer to our relatives, our friends, even strangers, the story of who God is, what He wants from us, what He has given us and how it is that we can come to know Him better. We all have some experience. We all have some level of relationship with Him. We can offer hope and love because we have faith. So let us use this Memorial day weekend to not only remember, pray and thank those who gave their lives so we may have the freedom to worship as we do, let us also 'remember' from whom all life and all freedoms and all authority comes and thank Him, and, then go out and tell the 'story' to all; remember, most of the Gospel, the Good News, is in parables, or stories – we all have a life writing our own story- tell it!!!!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer:

That our example may give witness to the precious gift of human life in this world and the invitation to eternal life in the next; We pray to the Lord:

Rose of Life Intention: For all life, that HIS story be told to all.

FOR YOUR MARRIAGE

For Your Marriage helps couples at all stages of life to understand and live God's plan for happy, holy marriages by providing educational and spiritual resources.

The website was launched in 2007 as part of the National Pastoral Initiative for Marriage, an initiative of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to communicate the meaning and value of married life for the Church and for society.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.
