Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: Ezekiel 18: 25-28

In a question and answer format, the author deals both with people who repent of their evil, and those who turn to it. He provides his responses to both.

Reading II: Philippians 2: 1-11, or 2: 1-5

The scholars tell us this beautiful passage Paul quotes is actually from an early Church hymn. The first part sings of the Lord’s abasement; the second of His earned exaltation.

The Gospel: Matthew 21: 28-32

This parable continues earlier stories in Matthew about the people who actually are part of God’s kingdom. Jesus tells the religious leaders in his audience that “tax collectors and prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you.” The folks who look the least religious will enter God’s kingdom ahead of religious leaders, because in the end they do God’s will.

RECTORY HOURS

The rectory office is open Monday through Friday from 9am until 4pm. All other times will be by appointment only. For your protection, and the protection of the staff, we ask that all persons over the age of 2 wear a mask while in the rectory. Please do not hesitate to contact us at 215-493-3377 or contact@stignatius.church before you stop by as most things can still be accomplished with a phone call.

Whether it's your first time here or you have been coming to Mass here for years, we welcome you to join our parish. Please contact the rectory to register.

We welcome the following families who have recently joined our parish family: Boyle, Durkin-Boyle, Coats, DeSimone, Henderson, Lutkins, Martin, O'Brien, Oliveira, Oswald, Parks-Madden, Scadden, Soto, Stemen, and Toft.

RCIA

Information is available for those who are considering becoming a member of the Catholic Faith. Please contact the Director of Religious Education, Annmarie Flanagan, at 215-493-5204 or 215-370-5701.

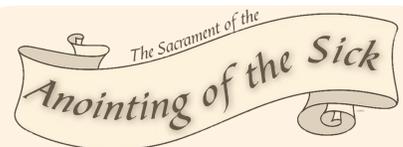

Arrangements should be made at least six months in advance. Please call the rectory to make an appointment with one of the priests.

BAPTISM

The Sacrament of Baptism is normally administered on Sundays at 12:45PM. Pre-Jordan class, for the first child only, is required for parents. Class is held on the first Monday of the month at 7:00PM in room 2B on the 2nd floor of the Meeting Center. Parents, please call the rectory to register for the class or for a Baptism.

We welcome Alana Lea Garlits, Gemma Marie Carleton, James Thomas Stemen, Violet Anne Lowe, Charlotte Grace Peck, Madelyn Leigh Peck, Claire Marie Butler, Josephine Joan Lormel, and Shea Simone Smith who have recently been baptized into our Catholic Faith.

Parishioners are encouraged to let the rectory know when they are in the hospital, nursing home, or other medical care facility. Please contact the rectory if you or anyone you know might be ill, a shut in or unable to attend Mass on a weekly basis. The Holy Eucharist will be brought to anyone homebound.

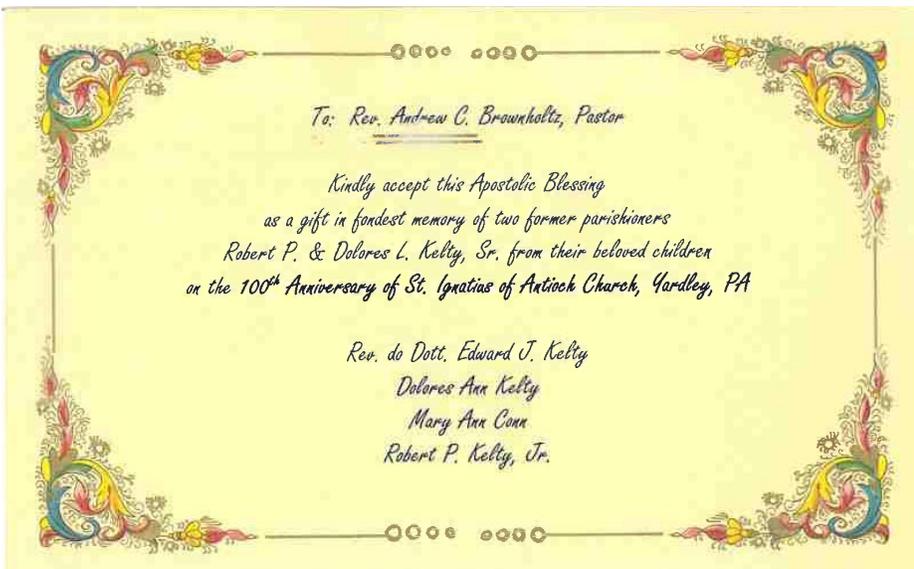

FISCAL CORNER

In this week's bulletin you will find our FY 2020 Annual Parish Financial Report. The report shows our cash position from last year, which identifies excess operating income over expenses of $99,450. This was a direct result of an increase in Sunday offerings, especially in our online giving, as well as special donations for major projects around the parish. Two other important figures from the report are the parish debt and the subsidy paid to the school. In FY 2020, the parish subsidy to our school was $219,253 or 14.69% of their operating expenses. This was down from a subsidy amount of 19% in FY 2019. Our parish debt as of 6/30/20 was $939,089 down from $1,000,677 from the previous year. This was due to a year end payment of $61,588 made on the parish loan debt. As always, if you have any questions on this report, please contact the rectory or email your request to glucidi@stignatius.church Gregory Lucidi – Parish Business Manager.

JOURNEY OF Faith PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

God our Father, Thank you for calling Griffen Schlaepfer, Andrew Lane, Michael Lewis, Philip Cheung, Erik Reyes, and Anthony Albanese, and Juan Builes, to prepare for the priesthood. Grant them the grace to grow closer to You through daily prayer. Help them form their personalities as credible witnesses to others. Bless them while they study Your word and the teachings of the Church, and give them generous hearts to serve Your people. We ask this through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our great High Priest. Amen

VOCATION OFFICE FOR THE DIOCESAN PRIESTHOOD
 ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA
HEED THE CALL

Pray for our beloved deceased especially those who have no one to pray for them, and the Holy Souls in purgatory.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Exposition will be held Monday thru Friday from 10 am to 8 pm. The restrictions for church attendance such as social distancing and wearing of masks apply. To assist with church sanitizing we are designating the front 3 pews for this devotion. We hope to resume 24/7 Perpetual Adoration in the Chapel when it is advisable. In the meantime, let us pray for each other and may God continue to bless you and your families.

ROSARY

All are invited to recite the rosary after the 9:00 Mass. For those who can stay longer, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy is also recited.

During the month of September we are praying the rosary at 7PM each evening at the grotto. You are welcome to join us!

HAIKU BOOKS

Time flies. We remember how proud we were to greet Archbishop Chaput at our church when he opened our Centennial year celebration on December 8, 2019. His words encouraging us to look back and look ahead were inspirational. The year, 2020, has allowed us to honor the dedicated pastors who served St. Ignatius parish for 100 years, to recall the growth of our parish in Yardley, and to thank the people who supported these efforts--all while fighting an international pandemic in ways necessary to sustain our faith and safety.

Our 100 years Anniversary Memory booklet of Haikus captures the poignant, heartfelt sentiments of our parishioners in words chosen for essential brevity and honesty. We thank the Knights of Columbus for their willingness to publish this tribute to our past. Three hundred copies of this booklet have been printed and made available to the parish to keep and cherish as future years mark the continuation of our mission in Yardley. Be sure to secure your copy with a $10 birthday donation to the parish. Reading it will evoke smiles, pride, happiness and even some laughter. Tonight after this closing Mass these booklets will be available at a table outside near the refreshments. Our special thanks to our new Archbishop Nelson Perez for his blessings and good wishes for the St. Ignatius parishioners.

Years from now we can look back at these inspirational haikus created by the people of St. Ignatius in 2020. Well into our next hundred years of service, even until 2120, these words will be a lasting part of our storied history. Preserve your family's copy now because -- Time flies.

LITTLE SISTERS of the POOR

In 1869 Archbishop Wood of Philadelphia invited the Little Sisters of the Poor from France to come and assist in caring for the vast numbers of elderly poor in the city. The charism of their foundress, St. Jeanne Jugan serving the poorest in simplicity, humility and trust in Divine Providence (begging), imbued them with the gift of fortitude for 150 years in Philadelphia through faithfully observing their vows of poverty, chastity, obedience, and hospitality while personally assisting the dying with firm belief - "It is Jesus Himself whom you are serving in the Poor." JJ.

They will be visiting us the weekend of October 31st/Nov 1st , appealing for your financial assistance to support their work. Your support is GREATLY APPRECIATED and is God's tangible providential assistance to the poor.

Book 'n Bean Discussion Group:

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, we are planning to have monthly virtual meetings via Zoom until further notice. They will be held on the last Tuesday evening of each month (except December.) For information or to join, please email Linda Stewart at: dremom@verizon.net Our calendar of readings for this year is:

September 29 - "Just Mercy" by Bryan Stevenson
October 27 - "The Book Woman of Troublesome Creek" by Kim M. Richardson
November 24 - "Wait 'til Next Year" by Doris Kearns Goodwin
January 26 - "On Desperate Ground" by Hampton Sides
February 23 - "Carnegie's Maid" by Marie Benedict
March 30 - "Say Nothing" by Patrick R. Keefe
April 27 - "The Lightkeeper's Daughters" by Jean Pendziwol
May 25 - "The Nickel Boys" by Colson Whitehead

Winter Coat and Sweater Drive October 10th from 9am -12pm St. Ignatius Church 999 Reading Ave, Yardley

We will be collecting slightly used coats and sweaters for those in need. Certificates from Wal-Mart, Target and Kohl's are also welcomed. All items will be distributed through local charitable agencies.

Your gift will help men, women and children who are in need of useable warm coats and sweaters. Your used coat or sweater is something "new" to someone in need.

Thank you,
St. Ignatius' Social Action-
Committee

ADULT Faith FORMATION

Our Adult Faith Formation committee is over 20 years old. Its primary focus is to provide ongoing education and evangelization to the members of our parish. In that time, we have offered over 125 different programs; some topics have been repeated. Some have been movies on faith related topics; some have been live speakers; most are DVDs; some are Scripture study; some are faith sharing. This year we would be offering two 'mini-retreats', one prior to Advent and one prior to Lent. We offered the retreats last year and they were well attended and appreciated by those in attendance. However, this year they will 'probably' be virtual. The main reason we have chosen these two topics is because we think most people have 'lost' the meaning of Advent and Lent. This year will be have Megan Murphy to offer reflections on Mary as Mother and her sacrifices for our Advent retreat; we will also have Msgr. Majores who will offer reflections on mercy and forgiveness prior to Lent. Again, these will in all likelihood be virtual as COVID is 'ruling' our lives—Actually, God is and we have free will and need to respond in prayer and sacrifice and fasting.

Join us for our meetings the first Wednesday of every month, virtually. If you can't, send us your ideas to stignatiusadultfaith@gmail.com St. Thomas Aquinas pray for us.

Respect

“Suicidal individuals—with or without a terminal illness—typically do not want to die... The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, ‘Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?’” “Can anyone help me?”

Another way or phrasing the question is ‘does anyone out there love me?’; God loves them and if they only had a relationship with God, they would know. The second great commandment is ‘love your neighbor as yourself’...sounds crazy!?! Not! Christ is in us; we are created in His image and likeness and we need to look at the ‘Christ’ in each person, even those we don’t like or hate, including ourselves. Suicide is not the end of problems, it is the beginning of more problems for those left behind. We need to reach out and help. As with abortion; as with euthanasia, loss of respect for life facilitates killing oneself as a morally relativized ‘solution’ to one’s problems and it never is.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For all who are forgotten or cast off, especially the unborn, the poor, the sick, and the aged: may they be treated according to the dignity with which God creates them; We pray to the Lord:

Rose of Life Intention: For all who feel unloved, that they may experience the love of God.

SEE NOTE ON PAGE 4 FOR TIME CHANGE

Children's Liturgy will remain suspended. Children's Liturgy leaflets are on the table by the back door of the church. We invite families to take one and enjoy with your children.

Permanent Diaconate Information Night (on Zoom)

Wednesday,
September 30, 2020 - 7 PM

We invite Catholic men (and their wives if married) with a deep spiritual life who are between the ages of 29 and 55, and would like to discern a call to serve Jesus Christ and His Church within the Archdiocese of Philadelphia as permanent deacons to take the next step. After the introductory talk about the vocation to the Permanent Diaconate there will be time for Q & A.

More info: No commitment is required to attend. This event will take place on Zoom. Visit arch-philadelphia.org/deacon to register.

Religious Education

From the Religious Education Office ... The PREP office is open from Sunday through Thursday.

PREP REGISTRATION:

PREP (Parish Religious Education Program) is for children in Grades K to 8. There is no increase in tuition this year. PREP classes are being held remotely (at least until January). Classes began the week of September 13, but it is not too late to sign up now. Annmarie is recording our teachers every week while they teach their “classes.” Parents can find these lessons on the parish website. (Go to stignatius.church, and then click on PREP. The grade levels will come up, so click on the level you want. Finish up by completing the Interactive Session Review and send results to the teacher’s email). Each class’s lesson will be available for a period of 1 week only. Then the next lesson will replace it. Registered families can communicate with the teachers by email. If you missed registration, you can still register. Please stop in our office or call us (215-493-5204) to receive the registration form by email.

Special Needs: Parents, are you aware that we have a PREP class for students with special needs? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please call Annmarie at 215-493-5204.

8th Grade Students: Parents, please encourage your 8th graders to continue their study of God and his Church. Confirmation is not graduation from learning about God; this is a lifetime commitment.

SACRAMENTS:

FIRST COMMUNION: Parents, who have chosen to select a different First Communion day for their children, please contact Annmarie to set this up as soon as possible.

CONFIRMATION: The Sacrament of Confirmation took place today, Saturday, September 26, at 10:00 a.m. and Sunday, September 27, at 2:00 p.m. Please pray that our young people will remain close to God and his Church throughout the rest of their lives.
