Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 23, 2024

*Who then is this whom even wind
and sea obey?*

MARK 4:41

The WORD of GOD

Reading I: Job 38: 1, 8-11

Yahweh speaks to Job and asks him, “Were you with me at the creation when I set the boundaries for the seas?” In turn, we are asked to trust in God, who can surely do such things.

Reading II: 2 Corinthians 5: 14-17

We believe that Christ died and rose again for our sakes. Because of His sacrifice, we are free to love God and avoid sin.

The Gospel: Mark 4: 35-41

When “even the winds and the sea obey Him,” we realize that we must make a decision about Christ. This is for our present and the future.

Parish Giving

In the spirit of embracing modern technology to foster a sense of community and ease in giving, St. Ignatius of Antioch utilizes E-Giving, a digital platform designed to streamline the process of making donations and supporting the parish's missions and operations. This innovative approach to stewardship not only simplifies the act of giving for parishioners, allowing for contributions to be made anytime and from anywhere, but also ensures a consistent flow of support for the church's many vital programs. E-Giving offers a secure, flexible, and efficient way for members of the community to uphold their commitment to the church, enhancing our ability to carry out charitable works, maintain our facilities, and expand our outreach initiatives. By adopting E-Giving, St. Ignatius of Antioch takes a significant step forward in ensuring the sustainability and growth of our beloved parish, fostering a culture of generosity and accessibility for all. Please visit our parish website to sign up or to get more information on this program.

MISSION APPEAL

Fr. Dominic Mutuku, O.P., from East Africa will preach a mission appeal at St. Ignatius of Antioch at all Masses on June 29-30 to help support the formation of young men for the priesthood as Dominican Friars in East Africa. Fr. Dominic will share the good works of the friars in the mission, where our friars preach the Word of God and are engaged in evangelization, teaching, and campus ministry, while working with the poor in underserved areas of Kenya. The ordained priests and the student brothers who are called to enter the priesthood as Dominican Friars depend on the support of the faithful here in the United States. Your generosity is appreciated.

Faith Formation

We are now in the midst of summer and next week we will be in celebration of the Independence of the U.S. We can only hope and pray that our country continues to be independent within the confines of the needs of the common good. In ordinary political discourse, the 'common good' refers to facilities-whether material, cultural or institutional- that the members of a community provide to all members in order to fulfill a relational obligation they have to care for certain interests they have in common. Three essential elements of the common good are respect for the person, the social well-being and development of the group and peace and security. The CCC defines the common good from Pope St. John XXIII as 'the sum total of social conditions which allow people, either as groups or individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily'. The common good applies to each human community but its most complete realization occurs in the political community where the state's role is to 'defend and promote the common good of civil society, its citizens and intermediate bodies'. Everyone has a responsibility for the common good as an embodiment of charity and justice. "the more we strive to secure a common good corresponding to the real needs of our neighbors, the more effectively we love them. Every Christian is called to practice this charity, in a manner corresponding to his/her vocation and according to the degree of influence he wields in the polis". The common good is the reason that the political authority exists! So, as we progress through this pandemic, let us all pray for our leaders, both Church and government that they exercise those guidelines that embrace the common good.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

"We often assume parenthood happens easily after 'I do,' but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility: after giving birth to one or more children, they are unable to have another... If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that you are not alone. God is with you, and his Church desires to walk with you."

God has a plan; He knows all and loves all of His children that HE has willed into existence; loss of children whether prior to birth or in childhood or adulthood is difficult to handle and difficult to understand. We need to remember that God can bring good out of all that appears/is evil. We need to be close to Jesus so we can be calmed in our grief with His grace and His love. He KNOWS our pain; Mary KNOWS our pain- she watched her Son die a horrible death! There is also much grief for those who wish to have children and cannot; again, God has a plan; He has His reasons which we cannot understand but we must have the faith the size of a 'mustard seed' to accept HIS will over ours and pray, and pray again for the graces to be calmed in the storm of infertility or loss.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For married couples longing for a child: May God grant them the grace and strength to place their faith in His loving plan; we pray to the Lord.

Rose of Life Intention: For all who have suffered/ are suffering infertility or loss of children.

Eucharistic Adoration Testimonials

"I was reading the meditation of the day for February 19th in the Magnificat "All For Jesus" from Venerable Francis Xavier Nguyen Van Thuan. In it he wrote this "easy formula" - Others = Jesus

*So this is my formula for adoration:
Peace + Love = Adoration
Adoration helps us see Jesus in everyone every day! Blessings, peace & love."
-- Gwen*

*"I often struggle with the business and noise of life with a young family. Adoration is a quiet place for me to spend time with the Lord when I need Him Most.
-- Nicole*

*"As soon as I enter the Chapel I feel a peace come over me and know that Jesus is there waiting to hear from me."
-- MM Phinney*

*"Adoration brings me peace."
-- Walt*

*"When I am down, I visit with the Lord and He lifts me up. And when I feel the need for the Lord's guidance in my life, I go before Him in adoration. And on one occasion during my visits in the Chapel, I encountered the face of Jesus for three consecutive days."
-- Deacon Mike*

*"Adoration at the chapel has for the last 20 some years been a place of solace, comfort and peace. It is truly "My Father's House" the closest place to Heaven here on earth."
-- Ann*

*"Spending time Adoring Jesus erases my fear and brings me Joy."
-- Marianne*

*"Adoring our Lord strengthens my faith and makes me a better man."
-- Jon*

*"My 1 AM adoration hour allowed me to form a true relationship with our Lord and know that he would never abandon me. Little did I know, it was that relationship that would carry me through Stage 3 breast cancer. I was never afraid. Doctors were amazed!"
-- Jean*

*"My holy hour was at the end of the week entering into the weekend. Adoration was the perfect transition from the ever-constant and consuming demands of work to a sense of peace and order, enabling me to focus on being the best father and husband I could be. What a Wonderful gift from God."
-- L.P.*

*"When I was praying before the Lord Jesus in the Adoration Chapel, I often thought of His words at the Last Supper. "This is my Body ..." Being there with him is a great privilege. Pope St. John Paul II said, "This is the wonderful truth my dear friends: The Word, which became flesh 2,000 years ago is present today in the Eucharist."
-- Rosemary*
