Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

April 20, 2025

Reading I: Acts 10: 34a, 37-43

God anointed Jesus at His baptism. The forgiveness of our sins comes through the invocation of Christ's name at our baptism.

Reading II: Colossians 3: 1-4

At His glorious Second Coming, Christ's presence will initiate the general resurrection of the dead and the righteous bodies among them will radiate God's glory.

The Gospel: John 20:1-9

The empty tomb is an indisputable fact of Easter morning, as testified even by the Roman soldiers put there as guards.

Parish Giving

In the spirit of embracing modern technology to foster a sense of community and ease in giving, St. Ignatius of Antioch utilizes E-Giving, a digital platform designed to streamline the process of making donations and supporting the parish's missions and operations. This innovative approach to stewardship not only simplifies the act of giving for parishioners, allowing for contributions to be made anytime and from anywhere, but also ensures a consistent flow of support for the church's many vital programs. E-Giving offers a secure, flexible, and efficient way for members of the community to uphold their commitment to the church, enhancing our ability to carry out charitable works, maintain our facilities, and expand our outreach initiatives. By adopting E-Giving, St. Ignatius of Antioch takes a significant step forward in ensuring the sustainability and growth of our beloved parish, fostering a culture of generosity and accessibility for all. Please visit our parish website to sign up or to get more information on this program.

Weekly Collection

Due to the Easter Holy Day last weekend's collection will be reported in next weekend's bulletin.

We are thankful for your consistent stewardship. ©JPPC

ST. IGNATIUS CHARISMATIC PRAYER GROUP

All are invited - as we sing God's praises and share in His Word and His Love in a community of faith. We meet every Thursday from 7:00-8:30PM in the Antioch Center Room 2F. ## Faith Formation

Today is Easter or, more properly, the feast of the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. The naming of the celebration as 'easter' seems to go back to the name of a pre-Christian goddess in England, Eostre, who was celebrated at the beginning of spring. The only reference to this goddess comes from the writings of the Venerable Bede, a British monk who lived in the late seventh and early eighth century. The word 'Easter' or its equivalents appear in the Bible only once in Acts 12:4. When taken into context, however, the use of the word 'Easter' in this verse refers only to the Passover. In Hebrew it is Pascha and in Aramaic it is Pesach, both of which originally designated the Passover feast of Exodus 12. Aside from the derivation, however, let us reflect today on what actually happened on this day and what it means for us today. A man, Jesus, was tortured and crucified to the death in a most horrible manner and on this day over 2000 years ago rose from the dead. How many people do you know that have arisen from the dead? Why is this important? We will all die, however, before the Resurrection and Christ's victory over death, our death could have been the end! But now, we have a 'new lease on life', a life for all eternity with Jesus in the Paradise of Heaven. At least, the possibility of such an eternal life is ours IF we are willing to accept the gift. The acceptance of this gift is dependent on our being willing to take up our own crosses and sufferings in this life for the sake of His sorrowful passion and follow Him who showed us the Way; gave us the Truth; and, is offering us the LIFE. To accomplish this acceptance, we need to empty ourselves of all that which attaches us to this earthly existence so we may be filled with the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of Life.

"Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, 'God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end' (Spe Salvi 31)." How many of us would be willing to sacrifice ourselves for the life of another? Possibly many for love of spouse/parent/child/great friend! How many of us would be willing to die willingly for being accused of something for which they had no guilt? Without fair trial? However, Jesus did both and He stated quite emphatically that no one 'takes' His life, but it is He that lays it down for His friends, and, quite notably, without guilt of that for which He was accused. Further, not only innocent of any guilt or crime, He was without sin and lived a 'perfect' life, both human and Divine, in this world, on this earth to show us how it could be done. Then, after death, having conquered it fully, He rose from the dead in a new life, in a resurrected body, to show us what will be awaiting us after our physical death if we only follow Him, the Way, the Truth and the Life. So, with this past Easter celebration let us follow Him and do the very best we can in this world so we may be happy with Him in the next. Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For all who work to build a culture of life, may the hope of the Resurrection renew and sustain them in their mission; we pray to the Lord

Rose of Life Intention: For all who have gone before us that they may be in the loving embrace of God.
