The Third Sunday of Lent

March 23, 2025

I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it

LUKE 13:8

© JPPC

Reading I: Exodus 3: 1-8a, 13-15

Moses is granted a visible and audible manifestation of God's glory, technically a "theophany." He receives his calling to lead Israel out of slavery.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 10: 1-6, 10-12

Paul urges his Corinthians to learn from Israel's mistakes. This means heeding God's call and avoiding any self-righteousness.

The Gospel: Luke 13: 1-9

Jesus refers to current events to teach spiritual truths. He then offers a parable which expresses both God's patience and the urgency to repent.

The Sacrament of Baptism is normally administered on Sundays at 12:45PM. Pre-Jordan class, for the first child only, is required for parents. Class is held on the first Monday of the month at 7:00PM in room 2B on the 2nd floor of the Meeting Center. Parents, please call the rectory to register for the class or for a Baptism.

Arrangements should be made at least six months in advance. Please call the rectory to make an appointment with Father Brownholtz.

We also welcome those couples who are civilly married and desire to receive the Sacrament of Marriage. Contact the Parish Office to arrange for a sacramental convalidation of your marriage.

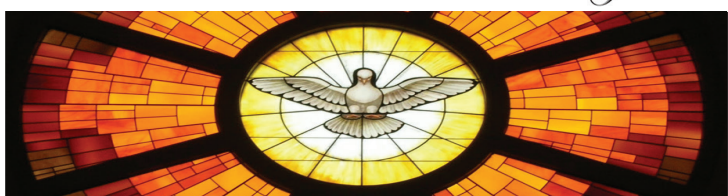

Parish Giving

In the spirit of embracing modern technology to foster a sense of community and ease in giving, St. Ignatius of Antioch utilizes E-Giving, a digital platform designed to streamline the process of making donations and supporting the parish's missions and operations. This innovative approach to stewardship not only simplifies the act of giving for parishioners, allowing for contributions to be made anytime and from anywhere, but also ensures a consistent flow of support for the church's many vital programs. E-Giving offers a secure, flexible, and efficient way for members of the community to uphold their commitment to the church, enhancing our ability to carry out charitable works, maintain our facilities, and expand our outreach initiatives. By adopting E-Giving, St. Ignatius of Antioch takes a significant step forward in ensuring the sustainability and growth of our beloved parish, fostering a culture of generosity and accessibility for all. Please visit our parish website to sign up or to get more information on this program.

Faith Formation

Today is the third Sunday of Lent... we are about halfway there! If you have not as yet decided on prayer, fasting, almsgiving, sacrifice... "giving something up", now is a good time to consider; if you have somewhat failed in your sacrifices, now is a good time to renew. Jesus was tempted in the desert by Satan during His 40 days and used Scripture to repel the evil one. We will all be tempted to not respond; to not comply; to not even consider... these are all temptations. We need to humble ourselves and empty ourselves so that we can be filled with the Holy Spirit to persevere in OUR journey; in OUR carrying of whatever cross we carry. Now would be a great time to not only visit the Adoration chapel for a time and lay our crosses in the lap of Jesus present Body/Blood/Soul and Divinity in the exposed Blessed Sacrament but to consider taking an hour a week in going forward to honor Him and have a closer relationship with Him. After all, it IS difficult to love someone with whom you have little or no relationship! The hours of the adoration chapel are posted in the chapel. The door code is 0521. It is open to all. We are one of the few parishes that have one with the hours we do and our parish adoration team is trying to get us back to 24/7/365 and with there being only 168 hours a week; there are over 2500 families in our parish; there are a little over 70 hours available and not covered; if you cannot do an hour consistently, why not get a 'team' of 2 or 3 friends/family to join you in covering an hour? After all, it is Jesus! He loves you and would love to spend some time with you. St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

"There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life... Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those 'brave mothers who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves'... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life" (The Gospel of Life 86).

One of the best examples of this sacrifice of motherhood to life is Mary, a 14-year-old Jewish single virgin dedicated to the Temple, conceived without original sin, and told by an angel that she is to be the mother of God and what to name Him! She said yes, even though perhaps not understanding all about the issue but having the faith that God knows what HE is doing! She did know that the Jewish penalty of such a 'yes' was being stoned to death. She was already betrothed to Joseph... imagine how he felt and what he thought when he found out... needing an angel to appear to him for explanation. All women who find themselves in the situation of an unplanned or unexpected pregnancy need to seek divine inspiration to God to know how it is that they are to proceed with their motherhood, already present, and how God will provide. Truly, everyday heroism.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: May all mothers facing difficult pregnancies be lovingly accompanied as they prepare to encounter Christ anew through the gift of their children, let us pray to the Lord:

Rose of Life Intention: For all mothers with unplanned/unexpected pregnancies.

Fr. James J. McCaffety Council #11013 Our council meets regularly the fourth Thursday of every month at 7:30 PM in the Wise Meeting room in the Antioch Center. We begin with the rosary at 7 PM. Art In our Church

Christ and the Samaritan Woman at Jacob's Well Carlo Marrati (1625-1713)

Carlo Maratti (also known as Maratta) was the leading artist in Rome, following the death of Bernini. Many of his works can be found in churches and palaces throughout Italy and France. In this depiction of Christ meeting the woman at the well, Maratti places the woman above Christ, but leaning down.

In her hand is a rope and a water jug. She seems to be curious but somewhat condescending as she gazes at Christ. Her clothing is muted and her posture seems almost weighted down as she begins to fill her urn. In contrast, Christ appears to leap up as he points to heaven. While she laboriously attempts to fill her thirst for earthly things, Jesus knows these will never quench her desires. He is offering "living water," so she will never be thirsty again. Marrati, by painting her foot on the same step as Christ's, signals she is ready to "make the leap of faith." This Lent is a good time to review whether we are attempting time and time again to fill our jugs with those earthly things that can never satisfy. It may take a surrender of our own self-will. As St. Elizabeth of the Trinity writes of such a soul, "The lamb can lead her to the fountain of life where He wills, as He wills, for she does not look at the paths on which she is walking, she simply gazes at the Shepherd who is leading her."
